COVID-19 continues to significantly impact our employees, families and communities. With employee health and safety as our top priority, and as a federal contractor, Lockheed Martin is taking action to address the increased risk and uncertainty COVID-19 variants pose in the workplace and ensuring we meet our commitments to national security.

To uphold safety for all employees, we will continue to request vaccination status for all Lockheed Martin employees including new hires. All current and newly hired employees are required to follow onsite safety measures based upon the COVID-19 Community Level at the specific work location.

Description:MFC Talent & Organizational Capability is leaning and leading into the future of work. We've transitioned to a project-based work operating system to enable agility, innovation, development, and engagement. Every member of the team has an opportunity to contribute to projects that transcend traditional swim lanes, so the opportunities to learn, contribute and expand your experience are endless!

We're seeking a seasoned professional with learning program development, workforce investment, change management, and critical pipeline assessment skills to round out our team's toolbox. Initially, the successful candidate will support projects like high-potential development and training grant strategy/apprenticeships. However, he/she will have opportunities to apply his/her skillset in various areas over time.

MFC Job Description: Designs and implements programs to enhance the effectiveness of leaders and teams in order to increase organization productivity and customer satisfaction. Conducts organizational assessments and interventions to improve team and individual performance. Assesses critical business issues and designs learning and development and strategic plans to enhance company performance. Leads and provides guidance for change management efforts. Advises on team design and performance. Provides development, coaching and training for managers on leadership skills.

Supports the MFC organization's mission, vision, and values through short-term and long-term projects, initiatives and strategies. Evaluates project requirements based on client specifications and business objectives. Gathers and interprets data, executes analysis and presents findings to leaders and executives. May facilitate trainings as needed. Measures the impact of training, development and/or restructuring programs. Mentors junior consultants and provides guidance and support.

Basic Qualifications:

Project Management experience and ability to effectively manage and execute multiple projects simultaneously. Data analysis and research capabilities. Experience building, coaching and developing teams.

Desired Skills:

Experience on large scale change management and consulting. Knowledge of adult learning theory and experience building learning programs of varying size/scope.
